

Gangland to God

From hardened criminal to ordained minister...

Davey Falcus was a notorious gangster coming from a background of organised crime, drugs and violence, running pubs and clubs in Newcastle-upon-Tyne. His fearsome reputation earned him the nickname 'The Beast of the North-East', yet Davey became a born-again Christian in 1995 after a face-to-face encounter with Jesus Christ.

Jesus instantly released him from a 15-year drug habit and a 20-year alcohol problem, and has since totally transformed Davey's life! Davey is now an ordained minister who leads Ashington Family Church as well as travelling internationally. God has accompanied his ministry with many signs, wonders, miracles, with a very powerful healing and deliverance edge to it.

Davey Falcus will be in Tavistock in April - come & hear his remarkable story

Venue: The King's,
Pixon Lane, Tavistock
Sunday 20th April 10.30am
